

Consultant Biography

ROBIN W. SINGLETON FACHE, FAAHC

Robin Singleton serves as Executive Vice President and Practice Leader for DHR International's National Healthcare Practice. She is a well-recognized and respected consultant in both the nonprofit and for profit healthcare sectors. Based in the firm's Atlanta, Georgia office, Ms. Singleton has conducted hundreds of senior level executive searches over a career span of 30 years solely in the healthcare industry.

DHR International is the fifth largest retained executive search firm with a wide variety of practices ranging from healthcare, technology, non-profit, sports and entertainment, financial services, life sciences and industrial sectors. The firm's Healthcare Practice focuses on hospitals and health systems, not-for-profit community hospitals, group practices, and all other provider entities.

Prior to joining DHR International, Ms. Singleton was a senior partner and stock holder at a national retained executive search firm specializing in the healthcare industry. She began her career in 1984, responsible for the organization and direction of physician/physician executives and group practice searches.

Ms. Singleton is active in a number of professional organizations: she serves on the Advisory Board of AGNITY Healthcare, is a Fellow of the American Association of Healthcare Consultants (FAAHC), and served on the Association's Board of Directors from 1997 to 1999 and again in 2007. Ms. Singleton is also a Fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives (FACHE) and has served on the ACHE's Regent's Advisory Council in Georgia and the Article of the Year Award Committee, as well as was selected as a presenter at the college's annual meeting. She serves as a guest lecturer for several national programs.

A graduate of Jacksonville State University, Ms. Singleton holds a BS in Business Administration.

Ms. Singleton is an active member of Roswell Presbyterian Church, where she is currently involved in the Refugee Resettlement Program. In addition, as a two time cancer survivor, Ms. Singleton remains active in the American Cancer Society.

Originally from Washington, D.C., Ms. Singleton has a son and daughter in college and resides in Marietta, Georgia.
